April 29 – May 1, 1988 7th Floor, Hall Building 1455 de Maisonneuve boulevard West Montreal, Quebec

The Conference

Economic renewal, social justice and national reconciliation: the Canadian Progressive Conservative Party came to power in 1984 with ambitious policy objectives. Four years later, on the eve of a general election, it is time to draw the balance sheet and see what has really been achieved.

The purpose of the conference is to bring together leading Canadian scholars who will offer a thorough and dispassionate assessment of the Mulroney government's 1984 electoral aims, and of its record of delivering on those promises. In the process, participants will engage in a reflection on the policy choices confronting Canadians heading into a new federal election.

The conference is organized by the Graduate program in Public Policy and Public Administration of the Department of Political Science at Concordia University.

Orliversity.

The conference will take place on the 7th floor of the Hall Building, 1455 de Maisonneuve Boulevard West, Montreal.
